FROM THE EDITORS

The journal is a forum for the presentation of the latest research carried out by the faculty members of the Department of African Languages and Cultures, University of Warsaw. All other scholars working in various fields of African Studies (linguistics, literature, history, education and others) are also cordially invited to submit the results of their original work. The journal's contents cover articles and monographs, as well as bibliographies, lexicographic studies and other source materials. Some issues are devoted to specialized topics or events.

The journal is available through subscription on the basis of exchange with academic centres. Some issues are also posted on the Department's website. For submission guidelines and proposals, offers of journal exchange or other comments and questions please contact:
